

PRESS RELEASE

FORT MCMURRAY FIRST NATION GROUP OF COMPANIES CONGRATULATES NCSG CRANE & HEAVY HAUL ON BEING PARTNER OF THE YEAR!

- FMFNGOC regrets that due the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, awards and announcement have been delayed -

FORT MCMURRAY FIRST NATION GROUP IS WHOLLY OWNED BY THE FORT MCMURRAY #468 FIRST NATION.

Fort McMurray, Alberta – February 15, 2022 – Fort McMurray First Nation Group of Companies (FMFNGOC) would like to congratulate NCSG Crane & Heavy Haul (NCSG), recipient of their Partner of the Year 2019-2020 award. “We are proud of our strong partnerships with industry leaders. In our partnership with NCSG, we share common values, a strong focus on safety, and they continue to work closely with us, showing a strong commitment to collaboration.” said Steve Jani, CEO of FMFNGOC.

The partnership began in 2014, serving customers in the Wood Buffalo Region, including major long-term contracts with Syncrude and Suncor. Benefits from the partnership create employment, capacity building and sub-contracting opportunities. In addition, they work together leading an Apprenticeship Program that includes local First Nation members called “Bring on Board” (B.O.B), focused on delivering training opportunities for future Crane Operators and Heavy Equipment Technicians. To-date, NCSG is the highest revenue earning partner with FMFNGOC.

FMFNGOC is a proud Fort McMurray #468 First Nation owned company who opened its doors in 1987. The company exists to create financial stability and economic success for the Nation and contributes to the growth and sustainability of the community - now and for future generations. With 34 years of experience, FMFNGOC provides high quality, reliable, and safe services, working together with local businesses and all partners. The company and its partnerships contribute $100K+ annually towards scholarships.

NCSG has over 30 years of service excellence providing turnkey solutions throughout the energy corridor of Canada to customers in a variety of industries. “We are honored to be recognized by FMFNGOC for our contribution and efforts in building a meaningful and long-term business relationship together.” stated Heather MacCallum, President & CEO of NCSG.

For more information, please contact:

Ryan Coish – Senior Business Development Manager
Fort McMurray First Nation Group of Companies
Mobile: 780-742-4568
fmfngroup.com

Andy Popko - VP, Indigenous Relations and Major Accounts
NCSG Crane & Heavy Haul
403-998-0544
www.ncsg.com